

Each panel is referenced to its own (J, F_1) zero-field centroid, printed as its offset;
differences of those offsets give the spacing between any two manifolds.
Panels in a row share one energy window, set by the widest manifold in that row.
 g_F is the fitted dE/dM_F of that F band divided by $-\mu_B B_z$.